Congratulations to After Dark @ All Saints'

The second annual After Dark @ All Saints' was a wonderful success. Thank you to all who attended sessions and to the presenters who donated their time and talents. Because of you, our local charities and ministries (via Outreach) will receive over $2,250 to support their work. Plans are already underway for next year's event, which promises to be even bigger and better. Many thanks!

"Blood Done Sign My Name"

A few weeks ago about twenty of us from All Saints' saw the one act play, Blood Done Sign My Name. The play tells the true story of the 1970 murder of Henry Marrow, a young, black Vietnam veteran and the impact of his death on the town of Oxford, NC. This single actor play provides us the opportunity to examine our own roles in the complex and often confusing racial fabric of America.

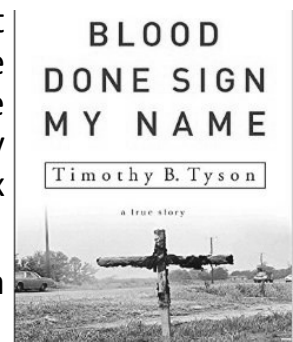

St. John's Lutheran Church in Salisbury, 200 W. Innes Street, will host a performances of "Blood Done Sign My Name."

TODAY Sunday, February 26 at 4 PM - Tickets are $10.

Information: 704.636.3431 or www.stjohns-salisbury.org

MORE PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

“The Saints Among Us”

Carolyn Franzese Phillips, a member of the Communications Team, will be interviewing members of our parish and sharing their stories. We firmly believe that we can learn from and inspire each other. We hope that this leads to developing deeper meaningful relationships beyond sitting next to each other at church.

So, we are embarking on this series entitled "The Saints Among Us" where we can delve a little deeper, share insights and hear some uplifting stories. This series will be made available at www.allsaintsconcord.org/saints-among-us/ as well as a link to it will be included in the Weekly Word.

Do you have a story that you'd like to tell?

If so, please send an email to announcements@allsaintsconcord.org and let us know.

Online Giving

All Saints' has a new giving feature! You can now give online and through text. Online giving is linked to your "My All Saints" profile and can also be accessed through the Church Life app as well. As of right now there are only two options for giving, the general fund and the assistance fund.

You can also give through texting – text SAINTS to 73256 and include the dollar amount, this will automatically be deposited into the general fund unless otherwise specified. If you wish to give to the Assistance Fund, text SAINTS ASSISTANCE to 73256. You will then receive a text back with a link to continue with the payment process. If you have any issues or questions, feel free to contact Hannah Crone in the church office 704-782-2024 or admin@allsaintsconcord.org.

PrimeTimers are Back!!

The PrimeTimers are getting together again. The first Meeting will be a "Let's Do Lunch." We will meet at Noon, Tuesday, February 28th at Captain's Galley, 290 Copperfield Blvd NE, Concord. 2017 Lenten Study Series: Race and Faith

All Are Welcome to be a part of our Lenten offering, which is centered around the theme, Race & Faith and is scheduled for the first five Thursdays in Lent from 7 PM to 8:30 PM.

- The first program in the series will be next Thursday, March 2.
- We are delighted to have the renowned speaker and preacher, Dr. Rodney Sadler, return to All Saints' to open this series on Race & Faith.
- He will provide an Old Testament and New Testament perspective as well as a theological-basis regarding race.
- We will also consider how the promises we make at every Baptism are meant to affect our behavior.
- We will also discuss how we, as followers of Jesus Christ, are to think about race and about who is our neighbor.
- We expect other churches to join us during this series. Please invite your friends and neighbors, as they will be benefited by this experience, too.

Join the Lent Madness

Lent Madness began in 2010 as the brainchild of the Rev. Tim Schenck. In seeking a fun, engaging way for people to learn about the men and women comprising the Church's Calendar of Saints, Tim came up with this unique Lenten devotion. Combining his love of sports with his passion for the lives of the saints, "Lent Madness" was born.

The format is straightforward: 32 saints are placed into a tournament-like single elimination bracket. Each pairing remains open for a set period of time and people vote for their favorite saint. 16 saints make it to the Round of the Sainly Sixteen; eight advance to the Round of the Elate Eight; four make it to the Faithful Four; two to the Championship; and the winner is awarded the coveted Golden Halo. The first round consists of basic biographical information about each of the 32 saints. Things get a bit more interesting in the subsequent rounds as we offer quotes and quirks, explore legends, and even move into the area of saintly kitsch.

The Path

I hope you are reading the wonderful bible stories in The Path. This past Saturday the Men's group had a marvelous discussion about Isaac, Jacob and Esau from Chapter 4. Immediately following we had our monthly work day with the focus on spreading gravel to create a walking path through our wooded area right behind the sanctuary.

Parish Workday Volunteers

Thanks to the volunteers for the work completed this past Saturday by Garen Livingston, Ben Smith, Don Foskey, Lee Cox, Ben Helms, Teri & Tommy Jones, Mike McDonough, Len Witke, Robbo Williams, Chris Charest, and myself. With the help of John Deere these 12 souls spread and tamped 16 tons of gravel in about 3 hours! We have started about one third of the total path which, once completed, will provide outdoor walking space not only for our parish but also our community neighbors. I believe one day it will draw new members to our church.

All Saints' has been working on this outdoor cathedral for several years now, starting with the clearing of an overgrown pine stand, removal of stumps, chipping of innumerable pine limbs, covering the cleared ground with mulch, clearing brush, cutting down damaged trees, installing drains, and trimming the never ending growth of weeds. The creation of The Path will open up this space to be developed into gardens featuring native plants and trees. The Path will create the structure from which the garden spaces can be designed, irrigated, and planted.

The Garden & Grounds of All Saints'

A friend gave me a lovely book by Stanley Kunitz, "The Wild Braid: A Poet Reflects on a Century in the Garden." Here are several quotes that speak to my soul and what we are creating with The Path and the garden.

"In the woods, one loses the sense of time. It's quite a different experience from walking the streets. The streets are human creations. In the woods what one finds are cosmic creations."

"I think of gardening as an extension of one's own being, something as deeply personal and intimate as writing a poem. The difference is that the garden is alive and it is created to endure just the way a human being comes into the world and lives, suffers, enjoys, and is mortal. The lifespan of a flowering plant can be so short, so abbreviated by the changing of the seasons, it seems to be a compressed parable of the human experience. The garden is, in a sense, the cosmos in miniature, a condensation of the world that is open to your senses. It doesn't end at the limits of your own parcel of land, or your own state, or your own nation. Every cultivated plot of ground is symbolic of the surprises and ramifications of life itself in all its varied forms . . ."

Come join us as we create The Path.

Faithfully, Mark D. Robinson
