America's Original Sin:

Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to a New America

IT'S TIME FOR A NEW CONVERSATION & ACTION ON RACISM

7 pm Thursdays - May 18th to July 6th

America's problem with race has deep roots, with the country's foundation tied to the near extermination of one race of people and the enslavement of another. Racism is truly our nation's original sin.

I believe that, together, with other churches, we need to consider this sin of racism in our community and in the workplace, and search for ways to be a part of the solution.

Members from other churches and their pastors, Reverend Peter Bynum, First Presbyterian; Reverend Carol Carkin, Central United Methodist; and The Reverend Nancy Cox, All Saints'; will each lead one of the sessions during the series.

Grace Lutheran and St. James Lutheran are joining us in this community-wide conversation. All sessions will be at 7:00 PM at All Saint's Episcopal Church . Books are available for $11. Contact: Chuck Collier at cwcollierjr@gmail.com, for more information.

Please join me in having conversations about this important issue.

- Chuck Collier

Saturday Mornings Men's Group

Come join us! Men of the church are invited to meet every Saturday morning in the Welcome Center at 8 AM. Next Saturday, May 20th we will begin a new book on Faith for the following six weeks.

In Faith from the Back Side, J. Ellsworth Kalas explores something that is central in a Christian life but often difficult to understand. As the author says, we talk about faith every day. Indeed, we exercise it even in secular moments but struggle to find it in those moments when we need God the most. As believers, though, faith is always near--closer than we can imagine--and as real as the air we breathe. In this book, discover from Kalas' unique perspective what faith is and how it can transform our lives.

Please see Don Foskey to get your book for $13.

Updates from the Gardens of All Saints'

The Path project has had a brief hiatus whilst the Power company trucks completed rewiring for the new intersection. On May 20th we excavated the area for The Learning Circle. We accomplished a lot and will be ready to start installing a retaining wall during Special Church Workdays on June 3rd & 10th (9 AM to Noon.) We have planned a 12 foot wide circle in recognition of the 12 apostles. Fortunately our two high schoolers, Ben Helms and Tommie Jones, knew how to calculate the circumference of a circle to figure the number of blocks needed for the retaining wall. (The answer is not Pie-R-Squared; that is the area.)

The mustard seed planted last year that did not fare well last summer. The soil in this area still needs amendment, although last year's wood chip mulch has begun to decompose. Three weeks ago we tilled the bed and planted field (or cow) peas, inoculated with rhizobacteria. The inoculation will help the roots form rhizomes that take nitrogen from the air and fix it in the soil. Field peas will tolerate the arid summer. In the Fall we will till them into the soil to serve as a green manure. A few weeks later we plan will sow native wildflower seeds in this bed which, God willing, will give us lovely flowers in the Spring and Summer of 2018.

We hope you enjoyed the lovely daffodils out on the Point this spring. We were told by the Power Company that they would take care to protect beds.

There has been a lot of work in the Columbarium garden. The fountain is now restored to its original 2012 condition and is working. A new bed of perennials has been planted around Jennifer Cobb's memorial native pawpaw tree. It is just behind the relocated concrete bench along the walk to the Lockhart School. Mike Spunich or Al Benschhoff are available for questions, comments or requests about the Columbarium Garden.

The kitchen and cutting gardens are coming into full swing. Many thanks to all the volunteers, who have labored in the gardens this Spring.

Faithfully, Mark Robinson, Al Benschhoff, and Shelley Williams

VESTRY PERSON OF THE MONTH FOR MAY: Amy Spunich

I am Amy Spunich and have been married to Mike 22 years. We have two children, Lauren and Luke. We also have a labradoodle named Truffle and a cat named Kitty. I grew up in Vienna, VA, but I consider Concord to be my home.

I work in the Human Resources Department at Bank of America and enjoy camping, hiking, gardening and playing with my kids.

I have been at All Saints' for 8 years. What I love about being here is that people at All Saints' are real... and come as we are... as a community of Christians to grow in faith together.

I am the vestry liaison to the Newcomer ministries. Carol Cline invited me to participate in this ministry 7 years ago, when I was fairly new at All Saints'. I still try to look through the eyes of a new person to see how we are welcoming, inviting and connecting with new people.
