America's Original Sin:

Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to a New America

IT'S TIME FOR A NEW CONVERSATION & ACTION ON RACISM

7 pm Thursdays - through July 6th

America's problem with race has deep roots, with the country's foundation tied to the near extermination of one race of people and the enslavement of another. Racism is truly our nation's original sin.

I believe that, together, with other churches, we need to consider this sin of racism in our community and in the workplace, and search for ways to be a part of the solution.

Members from other churches and their pastors, Reverend Peter Bynum, First Presbyterian; Reverend Carol Carkin, Central United Methodist; and The Reverend Nancy Cox, All Saints'; will each lead one of the sessions during the series.

Grace Lutheran and St. James Lutheran are joining us in this community-wide conversation. All sessions will be at 7:00 PM at All Saint's Episcopal Church . Books are available for $11. Contact: Chuck Collier at cwcollierjr@gmail.com, for more information.

Please join me in having conversations about this important issue. - Chuck Collier

Updates from the Gardens of All Saints'

The Path project has had a brief hiatus whilst the Power company trucks completed rewiring for the new intersection. On May 20th we excavated the area for The Learning Circle. We accomplished a lot and will be ready to start installing a retaining wall during Special Church Workdays on June 3rd & 10th (9 AM to Noon.) We have planned a 12 foot wide circle in recognition of the 12 apostles. Fortunately our two high schoolers, Ben Helms and Tommie Jones, knew how to calculate the circumference of a circle to figure the number of blocks needed for the retaining wall. (The answer is not Pie-R-Squared; that is the area.)

The mustard seed planted last year that did not fare well last summer. The soil in this area still needs amendment, although last year's wood chip mulch has begun to decompose. Three weeks ago we tilled the bed and planted field (or cow) peas, inoculated with rhizobacteria. The inoculation will help the roots form rhizomes that take nitrogen from the air and fix it in the soil. Field peas will tolerate the arid summer. In the Fall we will till them into the soil to serve as a green manure. A few weeks later we plan will sow native wildflower seeds in this bed which, God willing, will give us lovely flowers in the Spring and Summer of 2018.

We hope you enjoyed the lovely daffodils out on the Point this spring. The Power Company agreed to take care to protect beds.

There has been a lot of work in the Columbarium garden. The fountain is now restored to its original 2012 condition and is working. A new bed of perennials has been planted around Jennifer Cobb's memorial native pawpaw tree. It is just behind the relocated concrete bench along the walk to the Lockhart School. Mike Spunich or Al Benshoff are available for questions, comments or requests about the Columbarium Garden.

The kitchen and cutting gardens are coming into full swing Many thanks to all the volunteers, who have labored in the gardens this Spring.

Faithfully, Mark Robinson, Al Benshoff, and Shelley Williams

VESTRY PERSON OF THE MONTH FOR JUNE: Sue Gelarden Pastoral Care, Connect

I am Sue Gelarden and I have been a member of All Saints' for nineteen years. I grew up in Cabarrus County and went to a Lutheran Church. As an adult I became Episcopalian.

Unfortunately, I was never able to have children. Therefore, All Saints has become my family.

I recently retired. Professionally I was a Vocational Rehabilitation Case Manager. I worked with people with disabilities and helped them return to work.

During my time at All Saints I have been very involved in many different ministries. I have been touched by many, many people. All Saints is a special place.

I am very excited that I plan to become a Mentor for Education for Ministry (EFM) beginning in September. EFM is a rewarding experience through reading, study, and discussion to grow and learn in ministry. It does require a commitment, but it is worth it! If you have any interest, call me at 704-933-5683.
