News from the Vestry about the Lockhart Early Learning Center

We are excited to announce a new partnership for the Lockhart Early Learning Center! At the meeting on June 20th, the Vestry of All Saints decided to partner with The Bilingual Preschool run by Spencer and Aurora Swain. The change was prompted by Cabarrus County Schools' Head Start program's loss of funding and inability to partner with us for the 2017-18 school year.

Church leaders committed to serving the vulnerable children in our community quickly looked at several options, selecting a partnership with Spencer and Aurora as the one most consistent with our vision.

When we were discerning how to move forward with preschool education here at All Saints'; the fruit of that work ultimately became Lockhart. Spencer and Aurora were on a similar path of discernment, seeking how to best serve children on the margins. In 2015 they opened the Bilingual Preschool. They also provide support services to the families of the children through their organization "Families First." Under "Families First," Spencer and Aurora provide a wide variety of support services to families, including literacy and English as a Second Language (ESL), parenting instruction through their "Parents as Teacher" program as well as nutrition and food preparation instruction. To learn more about their program please follow the link to their website: www.familiesfirstcc.org/.

The vestry is very excited about the possibilities ahead of us with this new relationship. We hope that you are inspired as well. Please pray about how you could join this partnership as a tutor, parent mentor, volunteer, ESL instructor. As Frederick Buechner has observed "Ministry occurs at the point where the worlds deepest needs meet your deepest passion." What is yours and how will you serve? Hilary Smith, Senior Warden, wants to hear from you! Email her at hilarysmith2017@gmail.com.
