Sunday September 24th is Social Media Sunday

Social Media Sunday was born in the Episcopal Church in 2013, but it has grown into an ecumenical event for all who use social media platforms to share their faith and the Good News.

How to participate Sunday 24th of September: Use the hashtag #SMS17 or #WeAreAllSaintsConcord on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, or whatever other platform you regularly use. Check in at church, tweet the sermon, post selfies of yourself and the clergy, share a photo of people at your church or a video of your favorite hymn being sung — be creative and have fun being a faithful witness!

Newcomers Meet & Greet

Next Sunday, September 24th, there will be a Meet & Greet for Newcomers. Anyone who is new or still feels new, is welcome. This is simply a chance to get to meet a few more people and find out more about All Saints'. Please join us at 10 AM in the Welcome Center.

MORE PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Children & Youth Christian Formation:

The enthusiastic expressions of children's faith can help transform the church and everyone in it. Here at All Saints', we harness the enthusiasm of our children in worship as well as in Sunday school. We encourage our children to actively participate in the liturgy, and we delve into really learning and understanding the awesomeness of God in Sunday school.

- ◆ Our youngest students from age 3 through 8, participate in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Catechesis focuses on developing the spiritual nature of the child and his or her relationship with God while also teaching about liturgy and tradition.
- ◆ In the Re:form curriculum, students in grades 4 and 5 learn about unlikely people called by God to do amazing things. Re:form encourages tweens to see the similarities between themselves and their quirky faith ancestors. Re:form follows a three part sequence: Encounter – 15 minute video, Engage – Conversation, Respond – Regroup, Share and Send.
- ◆ Our Middle School Students gather on Sunday mornings for fellowship and discussion guided by the curriculum, Making it Real and Relevant, a lectionary based youth ministry program that uses contemporary music, movies and videos to connect faith formation with daily life. The goals are to:
 - learn that one has a life-purpose and that it is possible to discern what it is
 - to seek connection with the inner self
 - to seek connection with God and with the world
 - to experience transcendence (how one fits into the bigger picture)

“Responding to the spiritual needs of teens is about building trusting relationships. The Episcopal Church strives to walk with young people on their journeys from childhood to adulthood, recognizing their gifts for ministry, their questions about spirituality, and their desire to make a difference in the world.”

- National Episcopal Church
- ◆ Our High School Students gather on Sunday mornings for fellowship and discussion guided by the curriculum, NOOMA: Exploring the world from the perspective of Jesus.

Jesus lived with the awareness that God is doing something, right here, right now, and anybody can be a part of it. He encouraged his listeners to search, to question, to wrestle with the implications of what he was saying and doing. He inspired, challenged, provoked, comforted, and invited people to be open to God's work in this world. Wherever he went, whatever he did, Jesus started discussions about what matters most, because for Jesus, God is always inviting us to open our eyes and join in. NOOMA is a series of short films that are an invitation to search, question, and join the discussion.

We would like to thank Henry Riley for his service heading the usher ministry and welcome Kim Everhardt who is accepting the heading the ushers and joining worship committee.

“I can not thank my church family enough for the support you have shown during my recent move to Carillon Assisted Living in Harrisburg (6200 Roberta Road., Room 22B). I am settling in and finding fun and interesting things to do. I have also met some amazing people, some of whom I would never had met otherwise. I would especially like to thank Becky Hoyser, Kris Benshoff, Shelley Williams, Garen Livingston, & Jackie Whitfield for getting me a year's subscription to the “Charlotte Observer.” Thank you also to Debby Smith, Dawn Fisher, Alice Smith, & Dee Torey for the books. As you know I am a "news junkie" and avid reader and having the paper and books has made my adjustment so much easier. I apologize if I have left out any of my benefactors. Please come visit. I'm not going anywhere!
Thank you all, Jane Armitage”

MORE PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Children: new and improved musical opportunities, now on TUESDAYS!

In an effort to widen the opportunity for more children to be a part of the music making in worship at All Saints', there will now be TWO children's choirs! In this renovation, one is brand new for younger children, and the choir for older children has been renamed. Both groups will learn basic musical education, learn to sing in a healthy way as well as play and accompany themselves with instruments, all carried along by the Orff Schulwerk process!

Grades 1-3: St. Nicholas Choir Tuesdays 5:30-6:00 PM in Room 102

Grades 4-6: Junior Choir of All Saints' Tuesdays 6:00-7:00 PM in Room 102

Adults: it's time to be part of something beautiful!

Resurrection Choir: This choir leads worship at the 9:00 AM casual worship service. It rehearses on Sundays at 8:00 AM just before the service. The repertoire of this choir consists of a blend of Renewal, Folk, and Christian Popular music. If you find yourself being tugged towards the choir on Sunday mornings, please find a seat with the choir and try it out!

Choir of All Saints': This choir leads worship at the 11:10 AM traditional worship service. It rehearses on Wednesdays from 7 PM to 8:30 PM and warms up on Sundays at 10 AM. The repertoire of this choir includes standards of the Anglican choral tradition from its beginnings through the 21st century as well as music from multicultural genres. This group is warm and welcoming; if you enjoy part-singing and a more traditional style, then come take a seat with us!

Bells of All Saints': This choir meets on Wednesdays from 6 PM to 7 PM and is for 9th grade through adulthood. This group is perfect for anyone who is interested in being part of a musical ensemble; even if you don't sing your bells will always be in tune! To play hand bells well, you only have to learn to read two notes and to count to four. Well, to be honest, sometimes you may have to count to six. This group performs throughout the academic year. If you are interested, please talk to Brian to find out about any openings that may have occurred.

Please contact Brian Sapp-Moore at bsapp@allsaintsconcord.org with any questions or interest.

The Episcopal Church Responds to Hurricane Relief

We have watched with horror as crises were precipitated by hurricanes in the Southeast United States & Caribbean. Crisis ministry has three phases: Rescue, Relief and Recovery. First responders and ordinary citizens like Andrew Cobb, Jennifer Cobb's brother, have worked tirelessly to rescue people from the deluge unleashed by these hurricanes. This is faith at work, seeking and serving Jesus in the floodwaters.

Once people have been rescued, the ministry turns to relief. The Episcopal Diocese of Texas has deployed spiritual care teams to the Convention Center shelter and will continue to send new teams as other shelters open. This weekend, deacons and lay chaplains of the diocese will be in the hardest hit neighborhoods to offer comfort and emergency funds to people who were flooded. The diocesan cathedral is helping local Episcopal churches respond to the most pressing assessed needs, whether that be space for mission teams, feeding programs and/or funding. Episcopal Relief and Development has already provided emergency funds for some of this work.

As the floodwaters recede, recovery begins. The diocese will begin these efforts as soon as it is safe. If you are interested in helping out, Episcopal Relief and Development has a volunteer list "Ready to Serve" which can be accessed at <https://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-you-can-do/volunteer/ready-to-serve>

A message from the Presiding Bishop, the Right Reverend Michael Curry:

Long ago the prophet Malachi taught that we are all children of God by virtue of our creation by the same God. "Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us," he asked (2:10). Jesus taught the same thing when he told a story about a Good Samaritan. We are indeed all the children of God. And if we are all God's children, then we are all brothers and sisters.

We have watched and witnessed the devastation in the wake of Hurricanes Harvey & Irma. Our brothers and sisters need our help.

Episcopal Relief & Development reminds us not to send food, clothing or other items because affected dioceses have limited or no capacity to receive, store or distribute goods. It is more efficient and better for the local economy to make a donation.

This month's "First Sunday Offering," $1,200 has been sent to the Diocese of Texas to fund their work in responding to Hurricane Harvey. Going forward, I would suggest that you send financial support directly to Episcopal Relief and Development and earmark it for Hurricane Relief. You may donate online at www.episcopalrelief.org or mail checks to Episcopal Relief & Development, PO Box 7058, Merrifield, VA 22116

Please continue your prayers for those being affected by hurricanes and other natural disasters.

COMMUNITY & PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Seeing the Face of God in Each Other:
Anti-Racism Seminar
Saturday, October 7th - Beginning at 9 AM
St. Peter's, Charlotte.

As people of faith, we have the ability and responsibility to serve as models for inclusion and justice making, to commit ourselves to being multiculturally competent persons resisting racism. Attending the anti-racism seminar, "Seeing the Face of God in Each Other," is a significant step in learning the skills and acquiring the tools to dismantle systemic and institutional racism. The seminar provides an opportunity for honest and open communication, personal growth, understanding and healing.

To learn more about the seminar you may visit: and/or register
www.dionc.org/Ministries%20&%20Mission/racial-justice-reconciliation.html

The seminar fee is $15 includes lunch. Registration begins at 8:30 AM.

“Faithful Dissent: Loving Our Way into a Brighter Tomorrow”
with Ed Bacon and Stanley Hauerwas

In this time of divisiveness and fear, we're thrilled to offer some encouragement -with another free class .

“We live in increasingly divisive times,” says Bacon, “As Christ’s reconcilers in the world, we are called to act in ways that bring Christ’s love for the marginalized into the public sphere.” Bacon, the retired rector of All Saints’ Episcopal Church in Pasadena, California, led his congregation to take political action on many issues. This contrasts with ethicist Stanley Hauerwas’ who says dissent is primarily a stance Christians take in opposition to the world. “Christ calls us to be witnesses,” he says, “this is how the world knows it’s the world.”

You can register for the course now, but it will not be available to take until Monday, September 11. It will remain open and free through Monday, September 25th. That means you can take it for free anytime, 24/7, during that time period. If you register today at <https://churchnextblog.wordpress.com>, a reminder email will be sent to you.
