"I can not thank my church family enough for the support you have shown during my recent move to Carillon Assisted Living in Harrisburg (6200 Roberta Road., Room 22B). I am settling in and finding fun and interesting things to do. I have also met some amazing people, some of whom I would never had met otherwise. I would especially like to thank Becky Hoyser, Kris Benshoff, Shelley Williams, Garen Livingston, & Jackie Whitfield for getting me a year's subscription to "The Charlotte Observer." Thank you also to Debby Smith, Dawn Fisher, Alice Smith, & Dee Torey for the books. As you know I am a "news junkie" and avid reader and having the paper and books has made my adjustment so much easier. I apologize if I have left out any of my benefactors. Please come visit. I'm not going anywhere!

Thank you all, Jane Armitage"

We Celebrate the Baptism of Emma Grace Charest, daughter of Chris & Carrie Charest.
Welcome Emma Grace into the family of God!

Many thanks to Ben Smith & Mike McDonough for all their countless hours spent upgrading the Parish's WiFi network. The signal is stronger in more places now. Go ahead and try it: log on to AllSaints with the password JesusLovesYou

MORE PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Children & Youth Christian Formation

The enthusiastic expressions of children's faith can help transform the church and everyone in it. Here at All Saints', we harness the enthusiasm of our children in worship as well as in Sunday school. We encourage our children to actively participate in the liturgy, and we delve into really learning and understanding the awesomeness of God in Sunday school.

- ◆ Our youngest students from age 3 through 8, participate in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Catechesis focuses on developing the spiritual nature of the child and his or her relationship with God while also teaching about liturgy and tradition.
- ◆ In the Re:form curriculum, students in grades 4 and 5 learn about unlikely people called by God to do amazing things. Re:form encourages tweens to see the similarities between themselves and their quirky faith ancestors. Re:form follows a three part sequence: Encounter – 15 minute video, Engage – Conversation, Respond – Regroup, Share and Send.
- ◆ Our Middle School Students gather on Sunday mornings for fellowship and discussion guided by the curriculum, Making it Real and Relevant, a lectionary based youth ministry program that uses contemporary music, movies and videos to connect faith formation with daily life. The goals are to:
 - learn that one has a life-purpose and that it is possible to discern what it is
 - to seek connection with the inner self
 - to seek connection with God and with the world
 - to experience transcendence (how one fits into the bigger picture)

“Responding to the spiritual needs of teens is about building trusting relationships. The Episcopal Church strives to walk with young people on their journeys from childhood to adulthood, recognizing their gifts for ministry, their questions about spirituality, and their desire to make a difference in the world.”

- National Episcopal Church
- ◆ Our High School Students gather on Sunday mornings for fellowship and discussion guided by the curriculum, NOOMA: Exploring the world from the perspective of Jesus.

Jesus lived with the awareness that God is doing something, right here, right now, and anybody can be a part of it. He encouraged his listeners to search, to question, to wrestle with the implications of what he was saying and doing. He inspired, challenged, provoked, comforted, and invited people to be open to God's work in this world. Wherever he went, whatever he did, Jesus started discussions about what matters most, because for Jesus, God is always inviting us to open our eyes and join in. NOOMA is a series of short films that are an invitation to search, question, and join the discussion.

“Feeding minds and forming hearts to love and serve the Lord”

10 AM - Parish Hall The Rev. Dr. Rodney Sadler

In this series, we will explore what it looks like to do God's will in this world. Not only will we explore the importance of the Lord's Prayer for understanding the elusive concept of the Kingdom or Reign of God, we will set it in context of what we are called to do as Christians. Could it be that this concept is instructive for us as we live in an increasingly divided and disconnected society?

The Social Justice Bible Challenge

edited by Marek Zabriskie

This fall, disciples wishing to spend more time engaging the Bible on topics from poverty, hunger, displacement, and the care of widows and orphans will have their cups filled over and over again by the words of Scripture and meditations from people across the Church who engage with these realities each and every day. “The Social Justice Bible Challenge” edited by Marek Zabriskie, is about bridging the gap between knowing the Bible and living it. “The Social Justice Bible Challenge” is for those seeking to be deeply engaged in scripture, and connect their compassion to God's Word.

First Thursday of the Month Fellowship Dinners All Saints' Episcopal Church & Grace Lutheran Church

During our Race and Faith Series last spring, there were many people who were interested in continuing the conversation and developing relationships. One of the methods developed for doing just that was to break bread together.

Debby Smith at ASEC and Debra Smith at Grace, after coordinating with Donald and Nancy, developed a plan for Grace to host the inaugural dinner on Thursday, October 5th, at 6 PM to 7:30 PM. After that, All Saints' will host the supper on November 2nd. The plan is to meet every first Thursday of the month after that, rotating hosts each month.

Our first dinner will be at Grace Lutheran at 6 PM on October 5th. There will be a light meal, a short program, and discussion/fellowship around the tables. Grace will provide light sandwiches, raw veggies, and coffee & water. We are asked to bring sides and desserts to share.

All Saints' will host the second dinner on November 2 at 6 PM.

The Episcopal Church Responds to Hurricane Relief

We have watched with horror as crises were precipitated by hurricanes in the Southeast United States & Caribbean. Crisis ministry has three phases: Rescue, Relief and Recovery. First responders and ordinary citizens like Andrew Cobb, Jennifer Cobb's brother, have worked tirelessly to rescue people from the deluge unleashed by these hurricanes. This is faith at work, seeking and serving Jesus in the floodwaters.

Once people have been rescued, the ministry turns to relief. The Episcopal Diocese of Texas has deployed spiritual care teams to the Convention Center shelter and will continue to send new teams as other shelters open. This weekend, deacons and lay chaplains of the diocese will be in the hardest hit neighborhoods to offer comfort and emergency funds to people who were flooded. The diocesan cathedral is helping local Episcopal churches respond to the most pressing assessed needs, whether that be space for mission teams, feeding programs and/or funding. Episcopal Relief and Development has already provided emergency funds for some of this work.

As the floodwaters recede, recovery begins. The diocese will begin these efforts as soon as it is safe. If you are interested in helping out, Episcopal Relief and Development has a volunteer list "Ready to Serve" which can be accessed at <https://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-you-can-do/volunteer/ready-to-serve>

A message from the Presiding Bishop, the Right Reverend Michael Curry:

Long ago the prophet Malachi taught that we are all children of God by virtue of our creation by the same God. "Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us," he asked (2:10). Jesus taught the same thing when he told a story about a Good Samaritan. We are indeed all the children of God. And if we are all God's children, then we are all brothers and sisters.

We have watched and witnessed the devastation in the wake of Hurricanes Harvey & Irma. Our brothers and sisters need our help.

Episcopal Relief & Development reminds us not to send food, clothing or other items because affected dioceses have limited or no capacity to receive, store or distribute goods. It is more efficient and better for the local economy to make a donation.

This month's "First Sunday Offering," $1,200 has been sent to the Diocese of Texas to fund their work in responding to Hurricane Harvey. Going forward, I would suggest that you send financial support directly to Episcopal Relief and Development and earmark it for Hurricane Relief. You may donate online at www.episcopalrelief.org or mail checks to Episcopal Relief & Development, PO Box 7058, Merrifield, VA 22116

Please continue your prayers for those being affected by hurricanes and other natural disasters.

“Faithful Dissent: Loving Our Way into a Brighter Tomorrow”
with Ed Bacon and Stanley Hauerwas

In this time of divisiveness and fear, we're thrilled to offer some encouragement -with another free class .

“We live in increasingly divisive times,” says Bacon, “As Christ’s reconcilers in the world, we are called to act in ways that bring Christ’s love for the marginalized into the public sphere.” Bacon, the retired rector of All Saints’ Episcopal Church in Pasadena, California, led his congregation to take political action on many issues. This contrasts with ethicist Stanley Hauerwas’ who says dissent is primarily a stance Christians take in opposition to the world. “Christ calls us to be witnesses,” he says, “this is how the world knows it’s the world.”

You can register for the course now, but it will not be available to take until Monday, September 11. It will remain open and free through Monday, September 25th. That means you can take it for free anytime, 24/7, during that time period. If you register today at <https://churchnextblog.wordpress.com>, a reminder email will be sent to you.
