Nourishing Imagination at the Intersection of Science & Faith

with Dr. Ian Binns, at 10 AM, Sundays in the Parish Hall

November 5th, 12th & 19th

Come learn how science and faith answer different, but equally challenging, questions in our every day lives. Dr. Ian Binns is passionate about studying the interaction between science and religion and expanding how we imagine our world.

DID YOU KNOW?

OVER 70 volunteers prepare for and participate in SUNDAY WORSHIP each WEEK.

THANKS for GIVING

On November 12th, we will have a “Thanks-for-Giving” dinner in the Parish hall at 5:30 PM. It is a way to celebrate the many gifts that you bring to All Saints and to recognize the ingathering of pledges that will take place that morning during the services.

You may sign up online at www.allsaintsconcord.org/thanks-for-giving-dinner/ or on the sheet in the Welcome Center.

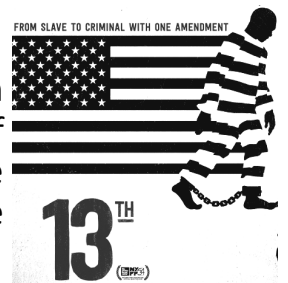

“Just Mercy” Book Study Thursdays 7 PM Parish Hall

We will have our book study on Brian Stevenson’s book at All Saints’ Episcopal Church at 7 PM on Thursday, November 9th. I hope you can attend. Please let me know if you plan to participate.

Thank you, Chuck Collier

Viewing of the Documentary “13th” Thursday, November 16th 7 PM Parish Hall

We will view and discuss the documentary “13th”, which is a 2016 American documentary by director Ava DuVernay. The film explores the "intersection of race, justice and mass incarceration in the United States". It is titled after the Thirteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, which freed the slaves and prohibited slavery (unless as punishment for a crime).

For more information about these series, please contact Chuck Collier at cwcollierjr@gmail.com

Have you been receiving the All Saints’ Weekly Word via email? If you have not but would like to, please email admin@allsaintsconcord.org.

If “Google Mail” is placing the Weekly Word in “Promotions,” please email Brian at bsapp@allsaintsconcord.org for directions to resolve this issue.

Bishop Anne Hodges-Copple

6:30 PM Wednesday, November 29th
Christ Church Charlotte, All Saints' Hall

Putting on the “Armor of Light” in a Season of Darkness

As days shorten and nights lengthen, it may seem that a different kind of darkness casts its shadows upon our hopes and dreams. Holiday plans anticipate celebrations with loved ones, but daily headlines elicit anxiety and fear about the future well-being of the people and creation entrusted to our mutual care.

In the Christian calendar, the liturgical season of Advent gives us a welcome opportunity to examine the relationship between our confidence in the transcendent power of God’s reconciling love and the uncertainties and hostilities causing division and dissension among neighbors near and far.

On Wednesday, November 29, our Bishop Suffragan, The Right Reverend Anne E. Hodges-Copple, invites you to join her for a presentation and conversation about what it might look like to be peacemakers, healers and agents of reconciliation in our own homes and local communities in ways that might change lives and even change the world.

Christ Church, Charlotte, will host this event; all are welcome to attend. The evening will begin at 6:30 PM with a brief Evening Prayer and then dinner. Afterward, Bishop Hodges-Copple will share a “state of the church” address summarizing our journey thus far, from Galilee to the Jesus Movement to Becoming the Beloved Community. This will be followed by table discussions for reflection. The evening will conclude by 8:00 PM.

Register for dinner ($9/adult, $8/senior, $6/child ages 4-12) at www.christchurchcharlotte.org/article/bishops-to-visit-in-november/ or contact: Sarah Hollar at sarah.hollar@stmarksnc.org for more information.

All Saints Night Shelter Church Announcement

An opportunity for the members of All Saints to volunteer and serve at the Night Shelter is coming up! Our week to serve those in need is Sunday, November 25th through Saturday, December 2nd. It is a wonderful opportunity to help those less fortunate than ourselves, especially as we enter the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. There are opportunities to help by providing a meal, to serve and also assist with guest intake. The sign-up sheet, with information on volunteer duties, is posted on the bulletin board in the Welcome Center. Please call Jim Williams at 704-534-5362 if you are interested in helping this very worthy cause. He can provide more information and answer any questions.

If you’re interested in just “shadowing” to see if this is something you might want to do in the future then, let Jim know, and he will gladly help set that up for you.

Thank you in advance for your support!

Sharing the news of our community!

Have a grape for the vine? Contact church office at 704-782-2024 or email announcements@allsaintsconcord.org

We had 40 humans and 31 pets at this year's The Blessing of the Animals & The Rescued Animal Food Ingathering Service. The pet food drive produced 214 pounds of food. The food was distributed approximately 40% to Princeton's Meow/Ruth's Memorial, 40% to the Splashpaw Foundation and 20% to Kreitzer's Puppy Rescue.

Please Congratulate Lucas Ross John, son of Drew and Jana John upon his baptism today. Welcome to the family of God!

Top 5 Reasons for Sitting in the FRONT ROW in Church According to Jerrod

5. You can sneak out the front exit door into the courtyard and be at your car in seconds after the service ends!
4. When you come into service really late and sit up front, everyone thinks "Wow, he must have been doing something super holy that kept him late," even though it's just because you got into watching those Sunday morning news shows!
3. You can sing joyfully and as loudly as you want to praise God, not worrying if the notes you miss bother the person sitting in front of you!
2. You can hear everything so well up there! The sermon, the choir, the readings. It's perfect!
1. At Eucharist, you are right there at the Lord's Table, a front row seat to the beauty of our liturgy, symbolic items, gestures, and the rest of the congregation as we gather together around Jesus's body and blood.

So if you're a lifelong back of the church sitter, pretend your name just got called on the "Price is Right" and COME ON DOWN! It's fun up here!

According to Brian and Michelle Malmquist

5. You may meet someone "new" who's also been coming to All Saints' for 10 years.
4. It is the best location to hear our amazing choir.
3. You will be stepping out of your comfort zone can have great rewards.
2. You can earn brownie points with the Most High. (Just Kidding!)
1. Sometimes we may just need a little change of perspective.

SO JUST TRY IT! - YOU MAY LIKE IT!

Top 5 Reasons for Why I Sit in the THIRD ROW in Church According to Jane Lyle

5. I can hear so much better
4. I can see what is going on at the altar.
3. I'm not distracted by the noise in the back.
2. I am right at the communion table.
1. Jerrod is on the front where he is an inspiration to me.

VESTRY PERSON OF THE MONTH FOR OCTOBER DON FOSKEY

"My name is Don Foskey. After retiring, my wife Nancy and I moved to Concord three years ago to be near our family. Our relocation, after 40 years in Atlanta, was difficult at first. But soon All Saints' welcomed us into an inclusive, loving community of Christ. Since joining All Saints' I have become a Stephen Minister. I am trying to strengthen my faith through Education for Ministry and Men's Group. Having been welcomed into this community, I want to welcome others.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

Sunday Announcements are due by Monday at Noon.

Announcements received after that time may appear the following week. Please address email to announcements@allsaintsconcord.org

PRAYERS OF THE PARISH

Prayer is the foundation of the ministry of this parish. Prayer requests & praise reports can be added or removed by going to the All Saints' website and clicking on Prayer Requests, or by calling the church office at 704-782-2024. You may choose to have your request sent to the Prayer Chain (a small group of faithful intercessors who pray daily for the requests) and/or to be included in the announcement bulletin. Please note that names will remain on the list for three weeks unless otherwise requested.

We pray for our Presiding Bishop, Michael; our Bishop, Samuel; our Suffragan Bishop Anne; our Assisting Bishop, Peter; our Rector, Nancy; our Deacon, Vern; our staff and Vestry; and for the people of All Saints' and their families.
