Bishop Anne Hodges-Copple

6:30 PM Wednesday, November 29th
Christ Church Charlotte, All Saints' Hall

Putting on the "Armor of Light" in a Season of Darkness

On Wednesday, November 29, our Bishop Suffragan, The Right Reverend Anne E. Hodges-Copple, invites you to join her for a presentation and conversation about what it might look like to be peacemakers, healers and agents of reconciliation in our own homes and local communities in ways that might change lives and even change the world.

Christ Church, Charlotte, will host this event; all are welcome to attend. The evening will begin at 6:30 PM with a brief Evening Prayer and then dinner. Afterward, Bishop Hodges-Copple will share a "state of the church" address summarizing our journey thus far, from Galilee to the Jesus Movement to Becoming the Beloved Community. This will be followed by table discussions for reflection. The evening will conclude by 8:00 PM.

Register for dinner ($9/adult, $8/senior, $6/child ages 4-12) at www.christchurchcharlotte.org/article/bishops-to-visit-in-november/ or contact: Sarah Hollar at sarah.hollar@stmarksnc.org for more information.

“Becoming the Beloved Community”

10 AM Sundays

December 10th & 17th

The Beloved Community is the body within which we promote the fruits of the spirit and grow to recognize our kinship as people who love God and love the image of God that we find in our neighbors, in ourselves, and in creation. It provides a positive, theologically and biblically based ideal toward which we can grow in love, rather than framing our justice and reconciliation efforts as fundamentally “against.”

Please consider taking part in this advent program.

For more information about this series, please contact Chuck Collier at cwcollierjr@gmail.com or visit www.episcopalchurch.org/page/becoming-beloved-community

But soon All Saints' welcomed us into an inclusive, loving community of Christ. Since joining All Saints' I have become a Stephen Minister. I am trying to strengthen my faith through Education for Ministry and Men's Group. Having been welcomed into this community, I want to welcome others."
