Facilitators from the Bishop's Committee for Racial Justice and Reconciliation will lead this day-long seminar to be held at All Saints' Episcopal Church.

The Seminar is limited to forty people. There is no fee to attend, but registration is required as lunch will be served.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

2018-2020 WOMEN TOUCHED BY GRACE SPIRITUAL RENEWAL PROGRAM

The Vestry of All Saints' Episcopal Church, Concord, NC, is pleased and proud to announce that our Rector, the Reverend, Nancy L. J. Cox, has been chosen as one of twenty participants in the 2018-2020 "Women Touched by Grace" spiritual renewal program.

Women pastors of various denominations from across the country will convene for five 10-day sessions over three years. The meditation and learning will focus on community building, parish leadership, spiritual direction, systems theory and prayer disciplines—five areas very close to our hearts as a faith community striving to "Love Like God Does."

"Women Touched by Grace" is partially funded by Lilly Endowment, Inc. and hosted by the Benedict Inn Retreat & Conference Center in Beech Grove, Indiana, which is administered by the Sisters of St. Benedict of Our Lady of Grace Monastery.

We were aware of the time commitment when we encouraged Reverend Nancy to accept this growth opportunity. We are confident that our parish family will support one another, working together to make each of these five events not only spiritually and professionally productive for our Rector, but also relatively stress-free on the "home front."
