Dear Parents of Young Children:

At All Saints', we believe that Jesus issues the same invitation to everyone: "Come to me, just exactly as you are." For our children, this means, "Come with all the energy, the wiggles and giggles, that God gave you." This is God's House, and life and love and laughter are all part of God's dream for the world. Your presence here is a blessing. Your children's presence is a blessing. And all of their wiggles and giggles (including any tears and protests) are welcome in God's House. Here are a few suggestions many parents have found helpful:

- Please sit towards the front — it's easier to see and hear all the action.
- Sing, pray, respond, and explain what's happening in the service. Children learn best about worship and liturgy from you.
- Pick up a green "Busy Bag" with books, coloring pages, and a stuffed Worship Buddy. Please return them after the service.
- We have a staffed nursery in the Education Wing and a livestream in the Parlor. If you need to leave, please come back, especially for Communion.

To All the Members of our Parish:

Children are one of God's most precious blessings. Thank you for warmly welcoming them into God's House and for encouraging their families with your smiles and assistance.

From the Vitality Team | New Logos Indicate Red Shirt & Red Door Events

Being Set Free to Serve and Set Free to Grow calls us to two related ideas — going out and inviting in.

The metaphor of getting “out of the castle” represents the intention of going into the community, being active, and becoming engaged, which is even more powerful when you are visible in the process. All Saints' has adopted the idea of wearing red shirts whenever we participate in community ministries and events or hold our meetings “out there” in a public place. We'll use a red shirt icon to identify these opportunities.

The mirror idea is inviting people to All Saints'. Not just for worship, although that is great, but to any event or activity that lends itself to welcoming friends and neighbors. Think about Grapes for Good, After Dark @ All Saints' or the many other events that take place here. Welcome guests and symbolize that by placing a red door icon on announcements about these events.

When you see the Red Shirt or a Red Door icon, let it be a reminder to you that here is an opportunity to connect, either by being a visible presence in the community or by welcoming folks to church.

10:30: Holy Eucharist, sermon by Bishop Willimon

Our work related to racial reconciliation began a few years ago when we considered Jesus' command to "love your neighbor as yourself." As a parish, we asked "Who are our neighbors?" We are on the same city block as the county jail, courthouse, and the police department and many law offices surround us. Our neighbor is the criminal justice system. We explored ways to be good neighbors and quickly learned of the racial inequalities that plague our system of justice. As our Presiding Bishop and Diocesan Bishop have both urged congregations to engage in the work of Becoming the Beloved Community, we have come to see this work as part of the work that the Spirit has given us to do.
