The Shape of Future Worship Using CDC Guidelines as the baseline, for additional safety of congregations, the Diocese has developed additional restrictions for our worship which may be different than other denominations. The following conditions will exist when in-person worship begins:- Up to 25 people including clergy, lectors, and ushers will be permitted in the worship space.- Everyone will be required to wear masks.- Physical distancing will be followed.- Books or printed materials may NOT be brought in from home. - Music and the sermon will be seen via video screens.- Vocal music will be pre-recorded.- We await specific instructions on communion. Bread will be provided.

Given the conditions listed above, I would be:

Answer	0%	100%	Number of Response(s)	Response Ratio
Comfortable attending under these conditions			33	35.1 %
Comfortable attending only when there are no active infections in our area			14	14.8 %
Comfortable attending only when rapid testing is universally available			8	8.5 %
Comfortable attending only when there is a vaccine			15	15.9 %
Comfortable with online services only at this time			38	40.4 %
Unsure when I will come back to in-person services			26	27.6 %
Totals			94	100%
