LITURGY OF THE WORD

Opening Hymn All Stand.

Come down, O Love divine Down Ampney

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it with thine own ardor glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight,

and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever.
Amen.

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

Surely it is God who saves me

Thomas Merton

Surely it is God who saves me;
trusting him, I shall not fear.
For the Lord defends and shields me and his saving help is near.
So rejoice as you draw water from salvation's living spring;

in the day of your deliverance
thank the Lord, his mercies sing.

Make his deeds known to the peoples;
tell out his exalted Name.

Praise the Lord, who has done great things;
all his works his might proclaim.
Zion, lift your voice in singing;
for with you has come to dwell, in your very midst, the great and Holy One of Israel.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Bible Reading

The people sit.

The First Reading: Acts 1-2 (adapted for children)

A reading from the book of the Acts of the Apostles.

For more than a month after He had risen, Jesus appeared to his friends at many different times. During those weeks, Jesus helped His disciples understand many things that they had not been able to understand before He died. One day, Jesus spoke to his disciples on the slopes of the Mount of Olives. Jesus told them they would not see Him any longer. He reminded them they had work to do, they had to tell the whole world about Jesus. But before they went to work, Jesus told them to go back to Jerusalem and wait for God to send the Holy Spirit to help them. While He was speaking, Jesus was lifted up, and a cloud took Him out of their sight.

The disciples went back to Jerusalem. While they waited, they talked and prayed. They knew that Jesus would no longer appear suddenly to talk to them, but once His Spirit came, Jesus would be with them in a new way.

Seven weeks after Passover, the Jewish people celebrated the festival of Pentecost in thanksgiving for the first harvest. Soon Jerusalem was packed with pilgrims once again, as Jewish people from all over the world returned for the happy celebration. Early that Sunday morning, on the day of Pentecost, Jesus' disciples were all together, when something strange happened. Suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Separate tongues, like little flames, appeared and one rested on each of them. But what they could see and hear was nothing compared to how they felt inside. The warmth and life that Jesus always brought with him were there again, and they knew that the promised Holy Spirit had come. The disciples were so happy that they rejoiced aloud and praised God.

Meanwhile, a huge crowd had collected outside the house. They had seen and heard some of the strange happenings and were curious to know what was going on. When the disciples came out of the house and onto the street, the people in the crowd were even more amazed. Each person heard the disciples in their own native language. Everyone there, no matter what country they had come from, understood perfectly what the disciples were saying, as they gave thanks for God's wonderful gift.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn All stand.

Spirit of the Living God

Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.

Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me,

Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.

Spirit of the living God, move among us all;

Make us one in heart and mind, make us one in love,

Humble, caring, selfless, sharing –

Spirit of the living God, fill us with your love.

Gospel: John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15

All remain standing.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, “When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

“I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Small Group Discussion

On Pentecost (a Jewish festival of the fiftieth day after Passover), Jesus' disciples were gathered for prayer at 9 o'clock in the morning. Suddenly, the room was filled with a rush of wind and tongues of fire, and they spoke in languages that all around could understand. In explaining what was happening, Peter quoted the prophet Joel: "I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams."

In the Gospel from John, Jesus teaches his disciples about the Holy Spirit, promising an advocate and guide. An advocate who will testify on behalf of Jesus to the world and a guide who will lead Jesus' disciples into truths they are not yet ready to bear.

Select one set of the following questions to answer in a small group of three to four people. Listen without discussion as each person shares their answer to the questions.

- What might Pentecost look like today? Do we dare to see visions and dream dreams? Of what might those visions and dreams consist?
- What do you make of the different portrayals of the Holy Spirit in today's readings (fire of passion, advocate, guide, intercessor, spirit of truth)? What have you learned from God recently that you could not hear before?

- What might be the sorts of truths that we ourselves are not yet ready to hear? And how might we listen for the voice of the Holy Spirit guiding us in the direction of those truths?

Renewal of the Baptismal Vows

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

People: I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,

the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

Celebrant: Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Confession of Sin

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor. Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace

All stand

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Presentation of Gifts

Celebrant: All things come of thee, O Lord.

People: And of thine own have we given thee.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

A note about receiving Holy Communion: In the Episcopal Church, we understand that Christ is “really present” in the bread and wine provided from God’s table. All who claim Christ as Lord are always welcome to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion in this church. Children are welcome to receive communion at the discretion of their parents.

Come forward at the direction of the ushers. Receive the consecrated wafer in the palm of your outstretched hand from the first person who comes to you. To receive a gluten-free wafer, please cross your hands palms down. Wine may be received by lightly dipping the bread into the small cup in the center of the plate/paten from which you received the bread. Alternatively, you may choose to drink from the larger cup/chalice which the next person will offer you. Receive the consecrated wine by guiding the offered cup to your lips and sipping. Those who distribute the wine will wipe the chalice with a food safe sanitizer and turn it for the next person after each person receives. You may also decide to take the wafer only. If you choose not to receive communion, you may cross your arms over your chest and receive a blessing as your presence is a blessing to all of us. Once you have been blessed or received communion, you may offer a short prayer and then return to your seat.

If physical limitations make it difficult to come forward, please let an usher know that we may have the honor of bringing communion to you.

Eucharistic Prayer Form 1

The People remain standing.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Celebrant and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of pow'r and might,
Heaven and earth are full, full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of Christ.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

We now celebrate, O God, the memorial of Christ our Saviour. By means of this holy bread and cup, we show forth the sacrifice of Christ's death, and proclaim the resurrection, until Christ comes in glory.

Gather us by this Holy Communion into one body in the Risen One, and make us a living sacrifice of praise.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory and praise, forever and ever.

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem

The bread which we break Hal-le-lu, hal-le-lu-jah!
Is the sharing of the body of Christ Hal-le-lu, hal-le-lu-jah!
We being many are one bread. Hal-le-lu, hal-le-lu-jah!
We being many are one body Hal-le-lu, hal-le-lu-jah!
For we all share in one bread Hal-le-lu, hal-le-lu-jah!
For we all share in one bread Hal-le-lu, hal-le-lu-jah!

Invitation

Spiritual Communion Prayer

A prayer for those joining online to be unified in Communion with Christ.

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. And since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Music at Communion

Breathe on me, breath of God

Nova Vita

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
fill me with life anew,
that I may love what thou dost love,
and do what thou wouldst do.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
until my heart is pure,
until with thee I will one will,
to do or to endure.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
till I am wholly thine,
till all this earthly part of me glows with thy fire divine.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
so shall I never die;
but live with thee the perfect life
of thine eternity.

This is the air that I breathe

This is the air that I breathe,
This is the air that I breathe;
Your holy presence living in me.
This is my daily bread,
This is my daily bread;
Your very word spoken to me.

And I, I'm desp'rate for you.
And I, I'm lost without you.

This is the air that I breathe,
This is the air that I breathe;
Your holy presence living in me.

This is my daily bread,
This is my daily bread;
Your very word spoken to me.

And I, I'm desp'rate for you.
And I, I'm lost without you.

Spirit Song

John Wimber

O let the Son of God enfold you
With His Spirit and His love
Let Him fill your heart and satisfy your soul
O let Him have the things that hold you
And His Spirit like a dove
Will descend upon your life and make you whole

Jesus, O Jesus
Come and fill Your lambs
Jesus, O Jesus
Come and fill Your lambs

O come and sing this song with gladness

As your hearts are filled with joy
Lift your hands in sweet surrender to His name
O give Him all your tears and sadness
Give Him all your years of pain
And you'll enter into life in Jesus' name

Jesus, O Jesus
Come and fill Your lambs
Jesus, O Jesus
Come and fill Your lambs

Closing Hymn

Come down, O Love divine

Down Ampney

And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace,
till Love create a place wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.
